In Sympathy

Our thoughts go out to the family and friends of Roberta Moore who passed away Thursday, May 3, 2012 in Grand Prairie, Texas. She worked as an Administrative Assistant in the College of Business at the University of Arkansas, in Little Rock for over 25 years. She was always smiling and friendly with every one. And, she was the only one in the college that new shorthand, which came in handy during meetings. She will be missed.

One of our past accounting graduates, Kevin Horn, is now a partner with one of the top CPA firms, BKD. Congratulations Kevin!

TRIVIA CHALLENGE

Boy, watch ‘em think about the question: What does cheese say when you take its picture?

The Trivia Challenge is a fundraiser for Economic Arkansas whose mission is “to promote economic literacy and the economic-way of thinking to Pre K-12 students in Arkansas by empowering educators to teach the fourth “r,” real life economics.” (But it’s mostly for fun for the participants.)

Dean Wayland sponsored the team from the College of Business this year who consisted of Mike Watts, David Dearman, Clay Posey and Jason Delaney.

It took place April 26 at the Wyndham Hotel in North Little Rock. The trivia questions were from the 70s, 80s, and 90s. Mike said, “Looking at the other teams, we speculate that David and I are the only ones who actually lived through the 70s!”

The overall winners were from the Little Rock public relations and advertising firm of Eric Ron & Isaac but the UALR College of Business team was in the upper half list of winners as well! Great job guys!!!
