

Today, our heroine, the Amazing Malissa from the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, (AHSS) rescues a UALR Trojan from certain advising peril...

That sounds easy! Thanks, Amazing Malissa!

How do I declare a major in AHSS? What if I have transfer courses or want to take courses elsewhere? What is a degree plan, and why do I need one? How do I meet with a College advisor? What is early registration?

Back off the latte, Trojan. Just chill. Ask AHSS!

The following day ...

Ask AHSS was a cinch! Excellent! And it's good to see you've laid off the latte!

Ask AHSS is a new website where you can get quick answers about transferring, advising, and registration.

In advising agony? Nowhere to turn? Up the creek without a degree plan? Ask the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences at ualr.edu/cahss/ask.

College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences
Fine Arts Building, Room 210
2801 South University Avenue
Little Rock, AR 72204-1099

The College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences houses eleven academic departments: art, English, international and second language studies, music, philosophy and liberal studies, political science, psychology, rhetoric and writing, sociology and anthropology, and theatre arts and dance.

You probably have a million questions if you are a new student, a transfer student, or about to be a student in AHSS. Just chill. Go to Ask AHSS at ualr.edu/cahss/ask. If you don't see the answer to your question in the FAQ, complete the online question submission form. We will try to respond quickly to questions submitted during the work week (Monday – Friday). Responses to questions sent during the weekend and university holidays may take a little longer.

ualr.edu/cahss/ask