

Emerging MAN - Men of Action Network
Program Evaluations
Spring semester 2009

During the spring semester of 2009, the Office of Campus Life began a new program series focused on addressing issues facing today's college males. Three events were held: a lecture on positive attitude by Keith Jackson, former NFL great and founder of PARK (Positive Atmosphere Reaches Kids), a discussion on homosexuality and prejudice by Dan Renzi, star of MTV's "The Real World" and an internet entertainment blogger, and "Becoming a Legendary Man" by Stephen Gray, a nationally recognized educational speaker and Student Affairs professional. The following are the results of the program evaluations from each of these events.
