

2011 Ruth Lovett Booker Endowed Scholarship Announcement

First Place: $1500.00
Second Place: $500.00

This year's topic: "The Cranky but Amiable English Major"

Open to full-time English majors at UALR who

- have completed at least 30 hours
- have a minimum 3.0 grade point in English
- will attend the CAHSS awards ceremony on May 10, 2011

In order to compete for the scholarship, you must submit an original written work – an essay, short story, or poem – that addresses the topic, which has been selected by the scholarship donors, "The Cranky but Amiable English Major." This original work must be between 100-1500 words and should be typed and double-spaced.

English Department faculty will determine the final pool of qualified applicants, and the scholarship donors will select the winners.

Submit this completed form with your essay.
