All of our Housing options include the following amenities:

- Furnished rooms
- Secure wired and wireless Internet
- Cable connections in every room and big screen TVs in the lounges
- Fenced, gated, on-site parking reserved for residents
- Trojan Trolley stops

What our residents are saying:

- “I love living on campus because there is always something to do. Whether watching a movie, going to campus events, or just hanging out with people, I am never bored.”
  - Morgan Morrow, Channelor's Leadership Corps, E1 Donors, AR

- “It’s wonderful to live in the residence hall because you’re surrounded by friends, and the cost and convenience is awesome. What’s most surprising about it is you don’t have a lot of separate bills, so you don’t have to worry about it every month.”
  - Solomon Phifer, Housing Actuary, Council, Crosswell, AR

- “I am an international student and living on campus was the perfect way to solve my transportation issues because I could walk to class and to nearby restaurants and grocery stores.”
  - Larissa Cantorella, Resident Assistant, Donoghy Soldier, Victoria, Brazil

What are living learning communities?

In a nutshell, living learning communities (LLCs) connect classroom learning with a residential experience. Students who choose to join an LLC are assigned to a floor with other students who share their academic goals and interests. These communities encourage partnerships between faculty and students, provide programs and activities specifically designed for each community, and create a support system that builds a strong foundation for student success.

Why join an LLC?

Studies show that students in LLCs develop friendships, attend programs, and become more engaged in the campus environment than non-LLC members. This increased participation and network of support leads to higher grades and more satisfaction with the general college experience. So, read on to see which LLC might be right for you.

The Communities

The Exploring Arts & Culture at Little Rock Community

This community is designed for students interested in the performing arts (drama, dance, art, or music). Majors in these areas is not a requirement.

Examples of activities in which you would participate include:
- Little Rock Symphony Orchestra, The Arkansas Arts Center, the Rep, Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art in Bentonville
- Opera androgynous, poetry slams, art exhibits
- Weekly coffee talk with faculty members to discuss arts and culture current events.

The Future Business Leaders Community

This community is designed for students aspiring to a career in accounting, economics, finance, management, or marketing.

Examples of activities you could include:
- Internship shadowing.
- Panel discussions with local business leaders.
- Annual trip to corporate partners.
- Management and marketing information systems course.
- Market analysis.

Are you considering nursing as a career? This community will help you prepare for the nursing program.

Examples of activities you could include:
- Professional orientation and clinical rotations.
- Opportunities to connect with upper-class nursing students.
- Volunteering opportunities for clinical rotations.
- Regular in-field faculty interactions.
- Field experiences with local hospitals.
- Field trips to nursing facilities.
- Paid internships for select students.

Exploring Majors and Careers

The Exploring Majors and Careers Community offers students information about degree options at UALR and explores a variety of career fields.

Examples of activities you could include:
- Sessions with UALR career planners to help determine individual interests, career.
- Panel discussions with faculty professionals from different disciplines.
- Job shadowing and other opportunities as provided through the Cooperative Education Internship Program.

The Housing Activities Council (HAC) provides a voice for residents in the UALR Housing community. The organization, led by student residents, offers all residents the opportunity to plan programs for their peers, serve the UALR and community, and gain leadership skills while making new friends. HAC hosts various events throughout the year. These include Welcome Week activities when the residence halls open in the fall, events each semester, and HAC Week during the spring.

Leaders within the organization have the privilege of representing UALR and Student Housing at various local and national conferences.

"Being a part of HAC has been great. The opportunities are endless and the friends I’ve made make it even better."

-Darriane Mull
HAC Executive Committee Member

The staff of the Office of Student Housing is concerned about the quality of life in the residence halls and is actively involved with structuring the environment to meet the needs of all residents.

The Resident Assistants are the first people you will meet upon your arrival in your residence hall or RA room. An RA is a student who is specially trained to help you and other residents learn about UALR, each other, and yourself. Each RA is in a living community comprised of approximately 10-40 residents. The RAs are responsible for promoting community development, creating positive relationships, and working with residents to plan activities.

Lobby Managers and Commons Assistants are student employees who staff the reception desks of East Hall and West Hall and serve as the University Commons building representatives. They answer the phones, take messages, check out residence hall equipment, monitor the commons, welcome visitors, and check in residence hall guests. Students interested in these positions should contact their Hall Director.

Hall Directors are live-in staff members responsible for the daily operations of the residence halls. They work with the RA staff to maintain a comfortable environment in the buildings. Each Hall Director has an office in their building and maintains office hours to assist students when needed.

What parents want to know

- Campus safety is our Number 1 priority. We provide restricted and secure access to entrances, controlled access parking, live-in trained staff, surveillance cameras in and around the halls, and campus police patrolling 24 hours a day.

- Academic success is essential. Studies show that students who live on campus tend to earn higher GPA's and are more likely to graduate on time.

- We are a community. Residential and campus involvement offers the opportunity to meet new people, make new friends, and be a positive leader.

- We have what students need. In addition to the convenience of residing near classes, the Library, on-campus activities, all residential students participate in the UALR living experience.
