

Application for Department of Management Online

It is important for you to understand that applying to this program means that you intend to take all of your remaining courses in online and/or blended format. If you register for a “live” (in class) course instead of an online course, you can be removed from the online degree program.

 Check Program Interest:

- Management Information Systems (online/blended program)
- General Management (online)
- Human Resource Management (online)
