Your name has been given as a reference by the applicant listed above. He/she is applying for an orientation leader position. Orientation leaders play an important role in our overall effort to familiarize our new students with campus programs and services.

Orientation Leaders:

1. Represent the University to new students and their families.
2. Present information concerning University policies and procedures.
3. Work independently and as team members to provide a quality program.
4. Interact with University faculty, administrators and staff.

Orientation leaders should possess leadership skills, knowledge of the University, communication skills, reliability, ability to work well with others, and emotional stability. We would appreciate your cooperation in completing this recommendation form.
