

SRA's National Science Foundation Webinar Series Begins With:

National Science Foundation Proposal Preparation Basics, Part 1 and 2

Date: Tuesday, September 14, 2010
Time: 11:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. Eastern Time

Please Note: This Webinar is worth three hours of educational credit, held in two parts with an hour and a half break mid-way.

NSF Instructors:

Jean Feldman, Head, Policy Office (BIO)
Beth Strausser, Senior Policy Specialist, Policy Office (BIO)

Content Geared Towards: Anyone in research administration wanting to learn the basics of preparing a proposal for the NSF.

NSF Proposal Preparation Basics, Part 1 (90 minutes)

11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. Eastern Time

This first session will provide an introduction to the National Science Foundation, its mission, organization and overarching policy requirements. We will also delve into the proposal preparation process as outlined in the NSF Proposal and Award Policies and Procedures Guide (PAPPG) including the types of funding opportunities used by NSF, components of an NSF proposal, budgetary guidelines and more.

Break (90 minutes)

12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time

NSF Proposal Preparation Basics, Part 2 (90 minutes)

2:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. Eastern Time

This second session will cover the merit review process at NSF which ensures that proposals are submitted and reviewed in a fair, competitive, transparent and in-depth manner. This session will also cover much of what you need to know when it comes to managing NSF awards including situations that require NSF approval, reporting requirements as well as other administrative, statutory and regulatory requirements.
