

Minor in Art: Art History

The minor in Art History focuses on the history, theory, and criticism of the visual arts. The minor in Art History encourages the development of analytical and critical viewing and writing skills useful in a large number of careers including law, medicine, and business.

The minor in Art History consists of 18 hours in art history, including:

ARHA 2310: Survey of the History of Art I:

Survey of the art history from prehistoric times to the Renaissance.

ARHA 2311: Survey of the History of Art II:

Survey of the history of art from the Renaissance through the contemporary period.

ARHA 2312: Survey of Non-Western Art:

Introduction to art outside the Western European tradition which focuses on the major artistic traditions of India, China, Japan, Africa, Oceania, and the Americas. Emphasis is placed on recognition of major works of art and artistic style and what these reveal about the cultures that produced them.

After completing ARHA 2310, 2311, & 2312, students will select three upper level art history courses electives (excluding ARHA 2305). Listed on the back are a few examples of upper-level art history courses.
