

Name _____ T# _____

To accomplish our mission, all members of the UALR College of Business – students, faculty, and staff – shall:

- Perform our work with integrity and honesty,
- Treat each other with courtesy,
- Strive continuously to improve our knowledge and skills, and
- Take responsibility for our professional actions and results.

The Code of Ethics shall be interpreted as a guide for all aspects of academic behavior and shall be administered and enforced as appropriate in accordance with the policies and procedures contained in the UALR Student Handbooks (Graduate and Undergraduate), Faculty Handbook, and Classified Employee Handbook and in accordance with specific classroom policies.

I have read the Code of Ethics set out above, and understand that as a student in the College of Business I agree to uphold its standards.

I have read the Code of Ethics set out above, and understand that as a student in the College of Business I agree to uphold its standards.

Student's Printed Name _____

Student's Signature _____

Student's Email Address _____

Date Signed _____

This signed form is to be returned to the Center for Student and Career Services in the College of Business for inclusion in the student's records.