FOREWORD

This manual serves as an information resource for the students in the UALR Master of Arts with emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling Program (“Rehabilitation Counseling Program at UALR”). Included is information regarding the mission, policies, and procedures of the Rehabilitation Counseling Program at UALR. The Rehabilitation Counseling Program at UALR is designed to assist students to become competent Rehabilitation Counseling Practitioners, focusing on the needs of individuals with disability who are receiving rehabilitation services. Training encompasses experiences with persons with disability in a variety of rehabilitation settings. In addition to the student’s acquisition of the information, skills and attitudes necessary to perform as a qualified Rehabilitation Counselor, the student is also introduced to rehabilitation as a profession through involvement with and participation in activities of professional rehabilitation organizations.

This manual is intended as a ready reference and practical manual of information for the UALR Rehabilitation Counseling Program student. Clarification of policies and procedures, as well as additional information, may be obtained from the student’s Faculty Advisor or the Program Coordinator for the Rehabilitation Counseling Program at UALR.

As a graduate student, you are responsible for planning and tracking your academic progress. In addition to the information presented here, you should familiarize yourself with the UALR Student Handbook, the UALR Graduate Student Handbook and the UALR Graduate Catalog. Many of the requirements, processes, and points of contact you will need during your participation in this program are fully described there. You also need to be familiar with the Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (CRCC) certification process and Code of Ethics, Counselor licensure requirements in your State, and the accreditation standards of the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP).

A CAREER IN REHABILITATION COUNSELING

Rehabilitation Counseling is a rapidly evolving profession which entered the field of human services about 50 years ago. Early Rehabilitation Counselors had the general goal of returning the individual with disability to functioning as effectively as possible, in order that he/she could become self-supporting.

The modern concept of the rehabilitation counselor is one of a professional individual trained at the master’s level from an accredited Rehabilitation Counselor graduate program who is skilled in individual counseling, assessment, vocational assistance and guidance, and in the use of occupational information. He or she is aware of special medical, social and psychological problems common to persons with physical, cognitive, and emotional disabilities, and is skilled in the development of employment opportunities and work adjustment activities. The professional rehabilitation counselor of today is aware of community relations, client advocacy, and other factors that impinge upon the client’s full participation in society.

Graduates of the Rehabilitation Counseling Program at UALR may seek employment in state, federal, community or institutional settings, and other areas where there is a rehabilitation focus. In whatever setting the rehabilitation counselor finds him/herself, the central goal is the mobilization of varied skills and resources to enhance the full independence, freedom, and self-determination of the client.

MISSION

The Master of Arts in Counseling with emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling program, also known as the Rehabilitation Counseling Program at UALR, is a 60 hour online graduate degree program that seeks to prepare rehabilitation counseling professionals to provide direct services and resource coordination for individuals with disabilities that are seeking to re-enter the labor market.

Graduates of the program receive a Master of Arts with emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling. The completion of the Rehabilitation Counseling program involves mastery of core requirements, electives, a clinical practicum and internship. An additional and centrally important requirement is that the student demonstrates appropriate judgment and maturity in his/her clinical work, abide by the Code of Ethics for Rehabilitation Counselors, and develop professional identity through affiliation and involvement with professional rehabilitation counseling organizations such as the American Rehabilitation Counseling Association (ARCA) or the National Rehabilitation Counseling Association (NRCA).

ACCREDITATION

The RC program at UALR is fully accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) in the Rehabilitation Counseling Specialty Area. Curriculum, clinical training, and the general course of study are designed to meet nationally approved standards of this accrediting body. As a graduate of an accredited program, the student is eligible to sit for the National Certified Rehabilitation Counselor Examination (CRC) as well as the National Counselor Examination for Licensure and Certification (NCE). As students in an accredited Rehabilitation Counselor training program, the examination may be taken just prior to graduation without the additional experience requirement. Students are strongly encouraged to sit for the exam consistent with their career goals.

THE FACULTY

The Rehabilitation Counseling Program is conducted by seven full time faculty members. Support is provided through the staff of the College and School Offices. All courses in the program are offered online which means that our faculty and staff must be technologically savvy, as well as experts in his or her field.
ADMISSION CRITERIA AND PROCEDURES

The RC program actively seeks students with the academic and clinical potential to become competent Rehabilitation Counselors. Special effort is directed toward qualified individuals from minority groups and individuals with disability.

The first step in the admission process is to complete an application to the UALR Graduate School. This application can be completed online at the UALR Graduate School website.

Additional admission requirements for REGULAR (DEGREE-SEEKING) STATUS in the Master of Arts in Counseling with emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling are as follows:

- GPA: Overall undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher, or 3.25 GPA in the last 60 hours.
  - OR

ADVISEMENT and ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Program Advising

All degree-seeking students should work closely with their program advisors to prepare a plan of study [Appendix 5]. Faculty advisors are typically assigned during the Fall term. Students entering in the Spring or Summer terms should contact either the Rehabilitation Counseling Program Coordinator or the Rehabilitation Counseling Admissions Coordinator for assistance prior to the assignment of a regular faculty advisor. Students seeking degrees should meet with their advisors immediately.

Faculty Advisor

Each student admitted into the UALR Rehabilitation Counseling program is assigned to one of the RC full time faculty who will serve as his/her Faculty Advisor. The Faculty Advisor plays an important role in the student’s choice of courses and helps direct the student to develop their career goals or special areas of interest. The Faculty Advisor is concerned about the student’s professional growth and development. Although the Faculty Advisor’s role is to assist the student in obtaining their academic goals, the responsibility for being aware of and meeting departmental and university deadlines is solely that of the student. The Faculty Advisor is not responsible for reminding students or notifying students of deadlines such as practicum or internship, application for CRC or licensure exams, financial aid, graduation, or final days for registration or adding or dropping courses.

Special, non-degree seeking students are advised by the program coordinator for the curricula in which they are seeking admission to classes. Students must be advised each semester before enrolling. Some programs use the student information system to require advising, while others do it in a more informal manner.

Course Load

A full-time graduate student must be enrolled for a minimum of nine credit hours per semester. A three quarter-time graduate student must be enrolled in seven or eight hours per semester. A half-time graduate student must be enrolled in five or six hours per semester. Graduate course load for summer terms are: full-time, five hours or more; three-quarter-time, four hours; and half-time, three hours. [2016-2017 UALR Graduate Catalog Advisement, Excerpted]

Since the focus of this program is on the development of proficient rehabilitation counseling practitioners, many of the courses are structured to include significant experiential learning components. In addition to the practicum and internship requirements, the student can expect to participate in projects and assignments ranging from shadowing and observation to service learning tasks. Accordingly, students are encouraged to register for no more than 9 hours in a fall or spring term and 6 hours in a summer term. Exceptions can be made with the concurrence of the faculty advisor and approval of the Program Coordinator. For example, the complete internship requires completion of TWO six hour sections. So, completion of the entire internship in a single term would require registration for 12 hours.
Retention Policies

University requirements and retention policies, as specified in the Graduate Catalog, apply to all Rehabilitation Counseling students. Students should review the university retention policies in the Graduate School catalog. The policies outlined below refer to the minimum performance standards of the Rehabilitation Counseling program. These policies supplement Graduate School policies to cover conditions unique to the Rehabilitation Counseling program. They should be considered as guidelines for advisement and planning for the student throughout their training. Students should be aware that in order to successfully complete the Rehabilitation Counseling program, they must demonstrate satisfactory performance in both academic and clinical courses in the program as well as compliance with all ethical and competency standards. Students may petition through their Faculty Advisor for reconsideration of any action taken and, if dissatisfied, should consult the Grievance Procedures in the following section.

The general goal of the Rehabilitation Counseling Program at UALR is to prepare qualified Rehabilitation Counselors to work in agencies, institutions, clinics, and other sites that are devoted to serving individuals with disability. Rehabilitation counseling faculty are specifically charged with monitoring student progress in academic, clinical and professional activities. Erratic performance, poor academic or poor clinical performance or poor professional attributes are concerns to be addressed with the student by the Faculty Advisor, who will also report these concerns to the Program Coordinator. Suggestions for intervention will be given by the Faculty Advisor and the Program Coordinator. The Faculty Advisor will meet with the student to discuss and outline a plan and intervention to resolve the problem. However, if there is continued evidence of the student’s inability to make a direct contribution, or improve performance or achieve clinical or academic competence, the student may be terminated from the program.

Authority for retention or dismissal decisions based on professional attributes is addressed in the following guidance:

- UALR 2016-2017 Graduate Catalog – Academic Policies
  “In addition, students are expected to exemplify and adhere to the codes of conduct prescribed by the professional organization in their fields of study. Students who fail to adhere to these standards are subject to dismissal from their graduate program and the Graduate School.”

- Council on Accreditation of Counseling and Related Programs (CACREP) - 2016 Accreditation Standards, Section 1
  “Counselor education programs have and follow a policy for student retention, remediation and dismissal from the program consistent with institutional due process policies and the counseling profession’s ethical codes and standards of practice.”

  “Rehabilitation counselor educators, through ongoing evaluation, are aware of and address the inability of some students to achieve required competencies, which may be due to academic performance or personal concerns. Rehabilitation counselor educators do the following: (1) assist students in securing remedial assistance, including counseling, when needed; (2) seek professional consultation and document the decision to recommend dismissal or refer students for assistance; and (3) make reasonable efforts to ensure that students have recourse in a timely manner to address decisions requiring them to seek assistance, or to dismiss them and provide students with due process, according to institutional policies and procedures.”

Academic Standing: Graduate students who do not maintain at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA (B average) on all courses are on academic probation at the end of the semester, regardless of whether or not they receive notification. Students who fail to remove the probationary status by raising their GPAs during their next enrollment periods or whose GPA cannot be raised to 3.0 or better within 12 credit hours are subject to dismissal from the Graduate School. For part-time students, next enrollment period may, if approved by the program coordinator, be defined as the next 12 hours.

Advanced Standing. The number of hours required to complete the Master of Arts in Counseling with Emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling degree may be reduced based on prior relevant academic training or work experience. This is called Advanced Standing. Advanced standing may not reduce program requirements below 54 semester hours. PLEASE NOTE THAT CREDIT AWARDED AS ADVANCED CREDIT DOES NOT TYPICALLY COUNT TOWARDS THE MINIMUM NUMBER OF GRADUATE HOURS REQUIRED FOR EITHER CERTIFICATION OR LICENSURE.

A student may gain advanced standing based on having at least 3 years of work experience as a rehabilitation counselor. Three through five years of work experience as a rehabilitation counselor at the time of admission is equivalent to 3 credit hours in the Rehabilitation Counseling Program. Six or more years of work experience as a rehabilitation counselor at the time of admission is equivalent to 6 credit hours.

Advanced standing may also be awarded to students that hold an undergraduate degree in Rehabilitation Studies from a regionally accredited institution. An undergraduate degree in Rehabilitation Studies would reduce the program requirements by 6 credit hours for such students.

Students should petition in writing to his/her Faculty Advisor of the UALR Rehabilitation Counseling program by providing a letter from his/her employer’s human resource administrator (on company letterhead) that includes the student’s job title and hiring date.

Core Competency Courses. In order to maximize the learning and development experience and to produce the most skilled Rehabilitation Counselors possible, this program chooses to emphasize the following program policies to our students:

An overall GPA of 3.00 on all courses in the program of study is required to complete graduation requirements for the Master of Arts with emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling Program. There are core competency courses in which the student must achieve a grade of “B” or better. In the event that a “B” is not achieved in one of the core courses, the student must repeat the course. You should also be aware that the Arkansas Board of Examiners in Counseling (and most other State licensing boards) will not accept courses with grades less than B as meeting their license requirements.

The core competency courses are:

- COUN 7360 Rehabilitation Foundations
- COUN 7363 Career Counseling and Placement
• COUN 7364 Rehabilitation Case Management
• COUN 7365 Supervised Practice in Rehabilitation Counseling
• COUN 7367 Assessment in Rehabilitation
• COUN 7660 Internship in Rehabilitation Counseling
• CNSL 7301 Theoretical Approaches to Counseling
• CNSL 7302 Techniques for Counseling Interviews
• CNSL 7307 Theories and Techniques of Group Counseling

Grievance Procedures. It is expected that the student will try to resolve disagreements of grievances first with his/her Faculty Advisor or directly with the faculty member with whom they have a disagreement. If the case is not resolved at this level, the Graduate School and the University have additional grievance procedures. These procedures may be obtained through the UALR Graduate School.

Incompletes and Withdrawals. Incompletes and withdrawals are viewed unfavorably by the graduate faculty, graduate dean, and prospective employers. An incomplete (I) grade must be requested by the student and is given when the instructor deems that circumstances beyond the student's control prevented timely completion of course requirements. An instructor does not give an incomplete (I) grade to a student who stops attending class without prior instructor approval or who fails to earn a passing grade during the course of the semester term. A written contract, signed by the instructor and student, sets the date and condition for completing the class. Most I grades can be removed within 90 days; all must be removed within one year, or these grades are converted to F's. Students with excessive incompletes may be restricted in the number of hours they may take in a subsequent semester.

A withdrawal (W) is recorded when a student drops a course after about the first week of classes or withdraws from all University coursework during a semester. A pattern of class or semester withdrawals can indicate unsatisfactory progress and may lead to dismissal from the graduate program or Graduate School. (See also “Academic Probation,” “Schedule Changes,” and “Withdrawal from the University” in this section of the Catalog).

In Progress grade (IP). The In Progress (IP) is used for classes such as thesis, dissertation, and other similar classes that have a time obligation that is longer than the traditional semester or session. IP indicates that the student is making satisfactory progress in that class. Students who do not make satisfactory progress will be granted no credit. The instructor assigning the IP grade will replace it by a letter grade that reflects the quality of the finished work. In unusual circumstances, such as a student not finishing the obligation in a length of time deemed reasonable by the professor or the professor assigning the grade being unable to change the grade, the graduate coordinator, after consulting with the Graduate School Dean, may change the grade to CR in the CR/NC scheme or A-C in the A-F scheme. The IP grade is distinct and different from the Incomplete (I) grade. The IP grade is not calculated into the grade point average. IP grades will be administratively converted to CR or A-C, as described above, after six years have elapsed. [2016-2017 UALR Graduate Catalog Academic Policies and Procedures, Excerpted]

Practicum and Internship. Enrollment in practicum is contingent on the students’ completing all Phase 1 and 2 (see the program plan of study) courses with an acceptable grade, and exhibiting satisfactory interpersonal skills. Exceptions must be approved by the program fieldwork supervisor. In addition, initial applications for fieldwork must be submitted prior to the established deadlines for each term and the completed applications received at least two weeks before the end of the term prior to the anticipated beginning of the fieldwork experience. This must include documentation of current professional liability insurance. The faculty supervisor of practicum and internship and the supervisor on the practicum and
An internship site will determine satisfactory completion of the respective clinical requirement. Where performance is not satisfactory, the student will be required to repeat the practicum or internship (not necessarily at the same setting) or have it extended until competence is achieved. In those instances where it appears unlikely that the student will be able to achieve minimum competency, the student may be terminated from the Rehabilitation Counseling program. Satisfactory participation in agency functions, professional and ethical behavior, as well as counseling and other skills, will be evaluated also.

Reapplication. A graduate student who has not been enrolled for a period of two calendar years will be classified as inactive. To resume graduate study, the student must reapply for admission.

Repeats and Probation. When a graduate course is repeated, the first grade remains part of the record and is computed in the final graduate grade point average (GPA). Failure to achieve the minimally acceptable grade in the second attempt of the course will result in the student being placed on probation. Failure to attain a satisfactory in the third attempt can indicate unsatisfactory progress and may lead to dismissal from the graduate program or Graduate School.

Time Limits. The Graduate School requires that all graduate work, from beginning to completion of requirements, be accomplished within a six year period. This time period begins the semester the student takes their first class. After six years, courses are considered outdated and may no longer apply to the student’s 60-hour graduation requirement without the concurrence of the program coordinator and the faculty advisor. Students must typically re-take any courses that were taken six years previously, in order for them to count toward the graduation requirement. Students may petition for a one semester extension beyond the six year limit. In order to petition, the student should first discuss their situation with their Faculty Advisor and, with the Faculty Advisor’s approval and support, the student should submit, in writing, a letter to the Program Coordinator of the RC program, requesting the extension. The request should state why the extension is necessary and outline a specific plan for completing the program if the extension is granted. If the Program Coordinator agrees that the extension is warranted, the Coordinator will write a letter to the Graduate School requesting the extension. The final decision regarding whether the extension is granted or not, however, is made by the Graduate School.

Transfer of Credits. Graduate credit may be granted for equivalent course work from other institutions with approval of the appropriate program coordinator and the Graduate School Dean.

Up to twenty-seven hours of credit may be accepted in transfer from other accredited graduate programs subsequent to review and approval of course content. Courses taken prior to the admission to the RC program, may be applied to a student’s 60-hour requirement for the degree in Rehabilitation Counseling. These courses must be appropriate for rehabilitation, must be graduate level courses, and must be within the six-year time requirement for degree completion established by the Graduate School. Courses taken as an undergraduate and which were applied to the student’s undergraduate degree requirements are not eligible for transfer. You should also be aware that courses that are not taken on a regular semester hour basis may not provide the full credit for a required course. For example, a similar course taken on a quarter hour basis might only equate to 2.6 semester hours which would not fulfill the 3 semester hour requirement.
The student must petition the RC program for transfer of these credit hours from another college or university, by submitting a request to his/her Faculty Advisor of the RC program, indicating the course number and name, the number of semester hours, semester taken, and grade received (Appendix 7). If the courses are appropriate to rehabilitation counseling, the Faculty Advisor will then submit the request, with a supporting copy of course syllabi, to the UALR Graduate School who determines whether or not to accept the courses as part of the student’s master’s degree program. This should be done as soon after admission to the program as possible in order to facilitate accurate planning for completion of the remaining program requirements.

Be sure you read and understand these as it is the student’s responsibility to ensure compliance with the program and university policy and procedures. If you have questions about any of these areas, please contact your Faculty Advisor.

PLAN OF STUDY and COURSE SEQUENCING

Refer to your Faculty Adviser and the Plan of Study to register for courses in the appropriate sequence. There are four phases of the Master of Arts in Counseling with emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling, Phase I, Phase II and Phase III classes should be completed sequentially prior to applying for the Internship. If you have questions about the document below please contact your adviser. See Appendix 3 for Plan of Study document. In cases where there are multiple sections of a course, you are expected to register for the course section being taught by a member of the Rehabilitation Counseling program. Exceptions require approval of your faculty advisor. Most Graduate students who start in Fall 2016, or later, will have access to DegreeWorks. This application will reflect the courses completed and those remaining for completion of the degree requirements. This application can be accessed at http://ualr.edu/records/degreeworks-student/. If you are unable to use this, you should contact your advisor and utilize the Plan of Study.

PRACTICUM and INTERNSHIP

Clinical training is designed to enable students to apply the information, concepts and skills they have learned in their academic courses. All students must complete the prerequisite courses with a “B” or better before they enter practicum. Prior work experience will not be counted toward practicum or internship credit. All Practicum requirements must be completed prior to beginning the Internship experience.

The policies, procedures and requirement documentation for the Practicum fieldwork and Internship fieldwork experiences are located within the Practicum Manual and Internship Manual, respectively, and both manuals are intended to provide the student with detailed information and procedures for applying for and participating in his/her rehabilitation counseling practicum and internship experience. Information is provided for applying for practicum/internship, practicum/internship site requirements, practicum/internship site supervisor requirements, practicum/internship faculty supervisor requirements, practicum/internship student expectations and requirements, and copies of required forms.
Deadlines for practicum and internship applications are as follows:

- Fall Semester: June 15
- Spring Semester: September 15
- Summer Semester: March 15

The required documentation for the Practicum and Internship Application documentation can be found within the respective manuals located on the Rehabilitation Counseling Program’s webpage at http://ualr.edu/chpr/graduate-programs/rehabilitation-counseling/practicum-internship/. Please read these manuals carefully as they should answer most questions.

LPC PROCESS

For students or graduates of our UALR Master of Arts in Rehabilitation Counseling program who want to become licensed counselors in Arkansas, here’s a brief summary of the process:

1. Applicants need 60 total hours.
2. Specific core curriculum content must be covered. Attached is a list of our UALR Rehabilitation Counseling courses that meet Arkansas Counselor Licensure requirements. More information and the license application are available at the Arkansas Board of Examiners in Counseling (ABEC) website at http://abec.arkansas.gov/. For more information about UALR Rehabilitation Counseling programs and courses, please e-mail rehabcounseling@ualr.edu or call 501-569-3169.
3. After the application is made and all application requirements are met, the applicant can register to take the National Counselor Examination (NCE).
4. If a passing score is obtained on the NCE, the applicant is scheduled for an oral examination before the Arkansas Board of Examiners in Counseling (ABEC).
5. If the oral interview with ABEC is successful, the applicant becomes a Licensed Associate Counselor (LAC).
6. LACs must practice under supervision by an ABEC-approved LPC supervisor for 3000 client contact hours.
7. After 3000 hours, the LAC becomes a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC). LPCs can practice independently in Arkansas and have privileged communication protection under Arkansas law.

Students or graduates in other states need to contact the state licensing board that governs your state requirements for licensure. We will be glad to work with you to help you meet those requirements. See Appendix 8.

By the way – in order to expedite things, please do the following religiously – ALWAYS INCLUDE YOUR NAME (THE ONE UNDER WHICH YOU ARE REGISTERED), T NUMBER, SPECIFIC CLASS, AND A GOOD DAYTIME PHONE NUMBER.

Computer Access
The student will need predictable, regular access to and control of a computer as your instructor assignment dates may vary. The student may also be required to download files or software to complete class work. If your computer is publicly used or is loaned to the student and the student cannot download files or software, you will need to discuss your circumstances with your instructor.

Internet Connection
Since this is an on-line program, reliable Internet access is essential. In many classes there are regular video lecture and links to other Internet resources. You will probably find that a wired connection will offer much faster and more reliable connections than wireless networks.

Operating System
- PC: Windows XP or more current. The University currently uses Windows 10, so using this same platform is preferred. If your PC will not support this, you should consider upgrading to one that does.
- Apple: Mac OS 10.x or higher

Application Packages
You will need a word processing application that will allow you to save documents in at least one of the following: .pdf, .rtf, doc., or .docx formats. In most cases, work submitted in formats other than these will not be able to be opened or graded. Depending on the structure of the class, this may result in the loss of points for that assignment.

Software
PC Users
- Microsoft Office (Microsoft Office 365 Pro Plus is available to students free. For more information go to http://ualr.edu/itservices/office365/students/
- Open Office

Mac OSX Users
- Open Office
- Microsoft Office for Mac
As a UALR student, you are eligible for free access to Microsoft Office 365. Information on this is available at http://ualr.edu/itservices/applications/software/

The following FREE software:
- Adobe Reader
- Java
- Microsoft Media
  - Media Player
  - Journal Viewer
Remember: These are minimum requirements. Your instructor may have additional requirements in order to achieve the learning objectives of your class.

It is the policy of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock to create inclusive learning environments. If there are aspects of the instruction or design of any course that results in barriers to your inclusion or to accurate assessment of achievement—such as time-limited exams, inaccessible web content, or the use of non-captioned videos—please notify the instructor as soon as possible. Students are also welcome to contact the Disability Resource Center, telephone 501-569-3143 (v/tty). For more information, visit the DRC website at http://ualr.edu/disability/.

STUDENT TECHNICAL SKILLS

The Rehabilitation Counseling Program is an online, web based program, with all courses and exams taken online. Therefore, a certain amount of basic technical skill is required to be successful in the program.

Students are expected to possess the following skills in order to participate in an online course.

Using e-mail

- Sending and receiving messages to individuals or lists
- Creating or opening attachments to e-mail
- Printing, saving, and deleting e-mail messages

Using Word Processing Software

- Saving, deleting, moving, renaming, and printing document files
- Creating and managing document folders

Using the Internet

- Searching the web for information
- Downloading and printing information from websites
- Downloading, viewing, and/or printing PDF files

These skills are meant to be basic criteria, and in no way override any criteria set forth by any instructor or degree plan. Students should be aware that further requirements (such as prerequisites, class standing, etc.), software, and skills may be required and should prepare themselves for those requirements. The best way for a student to do this is to consult an academic advisor and to sign up for online classes as early as possible to learn of any special requirements.
GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Eligibility

Students are eligible for graduation with a Master of Arts with emphasis in Rehabilitation Counseling, if they have:

1. Been fully admitted to the RC program.
2. Successfully completed at least 54 hours in the RC program, with a B or better in each of the core courses.
3. Has applied for graduation in the first week of the semester in which they plan to graduate.
4. Paid all tuition and fees assess by the UALR Bursar.

Application for Graduation

Applications for graduation should be filed with the Office of Admissions and Records during the first week of the semester in which the student wishes to graduate. These deadline dates are strictly adhered to. The Graduate School requires a departmental clearance approximately three weeks before commencement. The student should check and clear any deficiencies with his/her Faculty Advisor or other appropriate person. Items to be cleared are:

1. Minimum of 60 semester hours completed.
2. Core requirements satisfied.
3. Grades submitted for all courses, including Incompletes (I) and In Progress (IP).
4. Transfer courses approved for credit.
5. Internship successfully completed and grade submitted. (Grade will not be submitted until the evaluation form from the Internship Site Supervisor, student’s Internship Report, Logs, have been received.)

Should the student fail to complete all requirements for the degree during the semester for which he/she applied to graduate, he/she must reactive the application by the end of the first week of the term during which he/she plans to graduate. This can be done with a letter to Admissions and Records and the Graduate School.
PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATION

Rehabilitation Counseling is an evolving and rapidly changing field. In order to keep abreast of changes and in order to be aware of specific professional issues that have direct impact on the field, as well as on clients, it is important that Rehabilitation Counselors be involved in their professional organization.

There are a number of important issues involved in membership and professional affiliation as a student transitions from the student role to that of clinical practitioner on a professional level. There are a number of important reasons why students should obtain and maintain membership in both the American Rehabilitation Counseling Association (ARCA) which is part of the American Counseling Association (ACA) and the National Rehabilitation Counseling Association (NRCA) which is part of the National Rehabilitation Association (NRA). Membership provides opportunities for:

1. Networking and professional connectedness.
2. Information and education through conferences, publications, and continuing education opportunities.
4. Professional identity.

LPC PROCESS

For students or graduates of our UALR Master of Arts in Rehabilitation Counseling program who want to become licensed counselors in Arkansas, here’s a brief summary of the process:

1. Applicants need 60 total hours (six hours beyond our 54-hour MRC program requirement).
2. Specific core curriculum content must be covered. Attached is a list of our UALR Rehabilitation Counseling courses that meet Arkansas Counselor Licensure requirements. More information and the license application are available at the Arkansas Board of Examiners in Counseling (ABEC) website at www.state.ar.us/abec. For more information about UALR Rehabilitation Counseling programs and courses, please e-mail rehabcounseling@ualr.edu or call 501-569-3169.
3. After the application is made and all application requirements are met, the applicant can register to take the National Counselor Examination (NCE).
4. If a passing score is obtained on the NCE, the applicant is scheduled for an oral examination before the Arkansas Board of Examiners in Counseling (ABEC).
5. If the oral interview with ABEC is successful, the applicant becomes a Licensed Associate Counselor (LAC).
6. LACs must practice under supervision by an ABEC-approved LPC supervisor for 3000 client contact hours.
7. After 3000 hours, the LAC becomes a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC). LPCs can practice independently in Arkansas and have privileged communication protection under Arkansas law.

Students or graduates in other states need to contact the state licensing board that governs your state requirements for licensure. We will be glad to work with you to help you meet those requirements.

APPENDIX 10

CRC/CCRC Scope of Practice

Commission on Rehabilitation Counselor Certification (CRCC)

Assumptions

- The Scope of Practice Statement identifies knowledge and skills required for the provision of effective rehabilitation counseling services to persons with physical, mental, developmental, cognitive, and emotional disabilities as embodied in the standards of the profession's credentialing organizations.
- Several rehabilitation disciplines and related processes (e.g., vocational evaluation, job development and job placement, work adjustment, case management) are tied to the central field of rehabilitation counseling. The field of rehabilitation counseling is a specialty within the rehabilitation profession with counseling at its core, and is differentiated from other related counseling fields.
- The professional scope of rehabilitation counseling practice is also differentiated from an individual scope of practice, which may overlap, but is more specialized than the professional scope. An individual scope of practice is based on one's own knowledge of the abilities and skills that have been gained through a program of education and professional experience. A person is ethically bound to limit his/her practice to that individual scope of practice.

Underlying Values

- Facilitation of independence, integration, and inclusion of people with disabilities in employment and the community.
- Belief in the dignity and worth of all people.
- Commitment to a sense of equal justice based on a model of accommodation to provide and equalize the opportunities to participate in all rights and privileges available to all people; and a commitment to supporting persons with disabilities in advocacy activities to achieve this status and empower themselves.
- Emphasis on the holistic nature of human function which is procedurally facilitated by the utilization of such techniques as:
  - interdisciplinary teamwork.
  - counseling to assist in maintaining a holistic perspective.
  - a commitment to considering individuals within the context of their family systems and communities.
- Recognition of the importance of focusing on the assets of the person.
- Commitment to models of service delivery that emphasize integrated, comprehensive services which are mutually planned by the consumer and the rehabilitation counselor.
Scope of Practice Statement

Rehabilitation counseling is a systematic process which assists persons with physical, mental, developmental, cognitive, and emotional disabilities to achieve their personal, career, and independent living goals in the most integrated setting possible through the application of the counseling process. The counseling process involves communication, goal setting, and beneficial growth or change through self-advocacy, psychological, vocational, social, and behavioral interventions. The specific techniques and modalities utilized within this rehabilitation counseling process may include, but are not limited to:

- assessment and appraisal;
- diagnosis and treatment planning;
- career (vocational) counseling;
- individual and group counseling treatment interventions focused on facilitating adjustments to the medical and psychosocial impact of disability;
- case management, referral, and service coordination;
- program evaluation and research;
- interventions to remove environmental, employment, and attitudinal barriers;
- consultation services among multiple parties and regulatory systems;
- job analysis, job development, and placement services, including assistance with employment and job accommodations; and
- provision of consultation about and access to rehabilitation technology.

Selected Definitions

The following definitions are provided to increase the understanding of certain key terms and concepts used in the Scope of Practice Statement for Rehabilitation Counseling.

Appraisal: Selecting, administering, scoring, and interpreting instruments designed to assess an individual's aptitudes, abilities, achievements, interests, personal characteristics, disabilities, and mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders as well as the use of methods and techniques for understanding human behavior in relation to coping with, adapting to, or changing life situations.

Diagnosis and Treatment Planning: Assessing, analyzing, and providing diagnostic descriptions of mental, emotional, or behavioral conditions or disabilities; exploring possible solutions; and developing and implementing a treatment plan for mental, emotional, and psychosocial adjustment or development. Diagnosis and treatment planning shall not be construed to permit the performance of any act which rehabilitation counselors are not educated and trained to perform.

Counseling Treatment Intervention: The application of cognitive, affective, behavioral, and systemic counseling strategies which include developmental, wellness, pathologic, and multicultural principles of human behavior. Such interventions are specifically implemented in the context of a professional counseling relationship and may include, but are not limited to: appraisal; individual, group, marriage, and family counseling and psychotherapy; the diagnostic description and treatment of persons with mental, emotional, and behavioral disorders or disabilities; guidance and consulting to facilitate normal growth and development, including educational and career development; the utilization of functional assessments and career counseling for persons requesting assistance in adjusting to a disability or handicapping condition; referrals; consulting; and research.

Referral: Evaluating and identifying the needs of a client to determine the advisability of referrals to other specialists, advising the client of such judgments, and communicating as requested or deemed appropriate to such referral sources.

Case Management: A systematic process merging counseling and managerial concepts and skills through the application of techniques derived from intuitive and researched methods, thereby advancing efficient and effective decision-making for functional control of self, client, setting, and other relevant factors for anchoring a proactive practice. In case management, the counselor's role is focused on interviewing, counseling, planning rehabilitation programs, coordinating services, interacting with significant others, placing clients and following up with them, monitoring progress, and solving problems.

Program Evaluation: The effort to determine what changes occur as a result of a planned program by comparing actual changes (results) with desired changes (stated goals), and by identifying the degree to which the activity (planned program) is responsible for those changes.

Research: A systematic effort to collect, analyze, and interpret quantitative or qualitative data that describe how social characteristics, behavior, emotions, cognition, disabilities, mental disorders, and interpersonal transactions among individuals and organizations interact.

Consultation: The application of scientific principles and procedures in counseling and human development to provide assistance in understanding and solving current or potential problems that the consultee may have in relation to a third party, be it an individual, group, or organization.

The Practicum Student is required to establish at least three (3) learning objectives for the specified grading period. The primary focus of the Practicum course is to improve counseling skills, especially the core skills of helping. Secondary emphasis is on providing quality client service and case management, and for new counselors, an orientation to the field and to the specific agency in which he/she is completing the Practicum.

Learning objectives should reflect the counseling focus, as well as any secondary focus areas, and emphasize specific areas where the student needs to enhance or acquire skills (i.e. theory-based techniques, case note documentation, service plan development). The learning objectives must be originated by the Practicum Student in cooperation with the Practicum Site Supervisor, and reviewed by the Practicum Faculty Supervisor. Please consult your Practicum Faculty Supervisor if you need help in formulating your objectives. Goals should be specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and time-bound.

The Internship Student is required to establish at least three (3) learning objectives for the specified grading period. The primary focus of the Internship course is to improve counseling skills, especially the core skills of helping. Secondary emphasis is on providing quality client service and case management, and for new counselors, an orientation to the field and to the specific agency in which he/she is completing the Internship.

Learning objectives should reflect the counseling focus, as well as any secondary focus areas, and emphasize specific areas where the student needs to enhance or acquire skills (i.e. theory-based techniques, case note documentation, service plan development). The learning objectives must be originated by the Internship Student in cooperation with the Internship Site Supervisor, and reviewed by the Internship Faculty Supervisor. Please consult your Internship Faculty Supervisor if you need help in formulating your objectives. Goals should be specific, measurable, attainable, relevant, and time-bound.

The Internship Site Supervisor will evaluate the Internship Student’s success in achieving the learning objectives at the end of the grading period. The university will award academic credit for successful accomplishment of the learning objectives listed below:

1. (Related to counseling skills)

GROUP SUPERVISION SCHEDULE

During this term you will be expected to participate in WEEKLY GROUP SUPERVISION sessions in which you will interact with your faculty supervisor as well as the other members of your fieldwork section. In each session, you will be expected to discuss your activities for the week – particularly those involving difficult clients or issues. In addition, the faculty supervisor may incorporate specific topics of instruction and may have each of you act as the session leader. You should plan for each of the sessions to last from 1 to 1.5 hours. An additional part of this weekly assignment may be a discussion forum on the specific topic for that week.

Using the table below, indicate all times that you can be available by marking an X in the cell. You can indicate a preference by marking a P in the appropriate cell. If there are times when you absolutely cannot be available, mark that cell with a U. This should be turned in along with the first discussion assignment (your brief bio).
