The Interpreter Education Program
Proudly Presents

Distinguished Deaf Presenter Series

Fall 2017

October 10, 2017

Dr. Zheng Xuan is the first deaf person to receive a PhD in linguistics from a Chinese university. She is an Associate Professor, Special Education Department of Chongqing Normal University and a Researcher for the Center for Chinese Sign Language and Deaf Studies, Shanghai University.

Location: Dickinson Hall, 5th Floor, Room 501
Time: 9:25 – 10:40

Tuesday, October 17, 2017

Dominik Pointer & Magdalena Starzengruber

Dominik is a young man from Austria with Ushers Syndrome. He is fluent in Austrian Sign Language and will be using primarily Gustuno (international sign language) interpreted into ASL by Michael McMahon, CDI. Magdalena is from Austria and she knows German, Austrian Sign Language, and English.

Location: Dickinson Hall, 5th Floor, Room 501
Time: 9:25 – 10:40 or 12:00

Thursday October 26, 2017

Stacy Abrams is an Arkansan, a proud graduate of both Gallaudet University and University of California at Santa Barbara. She is this year's AAD Convention Keynote Presenter! She started the #whyisign campaign that went viral. She is the Coordinator of Training for the Clerc National Deaf Education Center at Gallaudet University.

Location: Dickinson Hall, 5th Floor, Room 501
Time: 9:25 – 10:40