The CSSC way

We are a community of scholars and professionals whose mission it is to drive social change and inspire human reflection, expression and interconnection. We enact our mission by being:

- Knowledgable - we are grounded in our disciplinary knowledge base.
- Ethical - we do what is right and good for our community.
- Welcoming - we are available, attentive, and present.
- Supportive - we take care of each other and work to find solutions.
- Relational - we value the power of relationships and respect one another.
- Positive - we focus on strengths and capitalize on opportunities.
