

Concurrent Enrollment Department Chair/Liaison Roles and Responsibilities

The following information can also be found in the on the UA Little Rock Early Credit website:

The role of the UA Little Rock Department Chair/Liaison for Concurrent Enrollment is to provide quality collegial support and guidance to the CE partnering high school faculty. In this role the UA Little Rock Department Chair/Liaison will review syllabi, maintain correspondence with high school faculty, participate/facilitate professional development, and make an annual site visit to CE high school faculty members.

Professional Development Facilitation

Each University Department Chair/Liaison must facilitate discipline specific professional development for High School CE faculty members teaching in for their department. This professional development occurs as follows:

- Orient new CE teachers prior to course instruction
- Review course syllabi to ensure the expectations of the University requirements and course learning outcomes are embedded
- The annual summer professional development forum
- Face-to-face professional development- primarily for teachers unable to attend summer PD
- On-going support via email, online forums, phone conversations, or face-to-face interaction
- Annual onsite evaluation visits

If the HS CE faculty member teacher misses professional development, the University liaison must make the CE Coordinator aware and follow the protocol of non-compliance as stated in the faculty guidelines “non-compliance” section.

UA Little Rock Departmental Liaison Site Visit

Each UA Little Rock Departmental Liaison must make one on-site visit to each High School CE faculty member teaching a CE course in his/her department. For the site visit the UA Little Rock Departmental Liaison:

Prior to Site visit

- Review the Concurrent Enrollment Faculty Guidelines
- Schedule the site visit with the High School CE faculty member

During Site visit

- Complete the site visits prior to spring break for UA Little Rock
- Complete the On-line Site Visit Report Form
- Be an observer
- Discuss findings with teacher
 - If teacher is found in non-compliance- inform UA Little Rock CE Coordinator, and discuss a plan of action to bring the teacher into compliance
 - If the teacher is in compliance, no action is necessary

As a representative of his/her department, the UA Little Rock Department Chair/Liaison for Concurrent Enrollment will complete and submit the online evaluation form at the time of visit. Evaluation form results are directly communicated to the University CE office. During the visit the UA Little Rock
