

Faculty Governance Committee Report

November 20, 2015

The College of Education and Health Professions governance document has finished its review and the co-chairs have met with the provost to compare our reviews with the reviews going back to the college.

The Mathematics and Statistics Department document review has been completed and the review is currently being put into final form.

The Information Science Department document is being reviewed.

The College of Social Sciences and Communication governance document was received by the committee this week. Discussion of the document will begin the first Friday after the Thanksgiving break.