

11-5-13

Courses to meet the area of English Language/Communication:

Change the title to Communication –Speech

Courses in this area focus on developing student knowledge and skills in a variety of spoken communication contexts.

Curriculum Area	Educational Goals	Learning Outcomes Students will . . .
English Language/Communication Change to Communication- speech	Skills 1- Communication (oral, written, visual, second language; professional self-presentation)	1. apply a structured approach to presenting ideas effectively; 2. apply foundational concepts of interpersonal communication in multiple contexts;
	Skills 2- Critical thinking, quantitative reasoning and solving problems individually and collaboratively	1. analyze rhetorical situations and adapt messages appropriately; 2. demonstrate an understanding of communication principles and dynamics by making recommendations for improving a given example
	Skills 3- Information Technology (locating, retrieving, evaluating, synthesizing)	1. use current technology for drafting, reviewing, revising, editing, and sharing presentations; 2. locate, evaluate, organize, and use research materials from electronic sources.
	Values 1- Ethical behavior and personal responsibility	1. assess the ethical implications of communication in a variety of contexts;
	Values 2- Civic Responsibility	1. understand the power of communication to influence a community positively or negatively.

