

You will be mapping the floor plan of your room. Before you begin we are going to look at some floor plans of buildings to get an idea about how to do this.

- Think about how the other groups will be able to understand the symbols you use on your floor plan.
- What procedure will you use for labeling your floor plan and creating a key?

