

- 1. What are the boundaries of this system?
- 2. List some important elements of this system.
- 3. Describe the input to this system.
- 4. Describe the output from the system.
- 5. Describe some important interactions among the elements of the system.
- 6. Describe some important interactions between the system elements and the input into the system.
- 7. What would happen if the interactions among system elements could not take place?
- 8. What would happen if interactions between system elements and input could not take place?