Report of Program Review Sub-Committee

Other Business:

Discussion about graduate stipends/funding. Questions were asked about whether departments should be allotted graduate assistantship budget lines, assistantships being housed in the department or continuing through the graduate school and the challenges with assistantships in interdisciplinary programs.

Dean's Report:

S. Clowney, Assistant Dean of the Graduate School, reported that all items passed through council by November 16th will be in the 2006 catalog. Graduate Catalog is moving to a one-year cycle due to the increase and changes in graduate program offerings. Coordinator meetings went well and recommendations from attendees are being addressed within the Graduate School.
