Faculty Footnotes

Lynn Foster
Arkansas Bar Foundation Professor
Lynn Foster spoke to the Central Arkansas Estate Planning Council on Nov. 19. She presented a CLE on proposed legislation and recent case law.

Ken Gould
Professor Ken Gould has been selected by the American Bar Association Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar to serve on the accreditation site inspection team visiting Yeshiva University Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law in New York City March 21-24.

Josh Silverstein
Assistant Professor Josh Silverstein’s article, Overlooking Tort Claimants’ Best Interests: Non-Debtor Releases in Asbestos Bankruptcies, 78 UMKC Law Review 1-100 (2009), was published in October 2009. In the article, Silverstein argues that bankruptcy courts and litigants have overlooked critical limits on the issuance of non-debtor releases in asbestos reorganizations.

On Nov. 16, Silverstein presented to the Sebastian County Bar Association in Fort Smith. His presentation was titled “Extinguishing Liabilities of Non-Debtors in Bankruptcy Proceedings: A Primer on Non-Debtor Releases.”

Robert Steinbuch
Associate Professor Robert Steinbuch was recently appointed the Associate Editor for Legal-Medical Issues for the Journal of the National Medical Association – the primary source for specialized clinical research activities related to the health problems of African-Americans and other minority groups. He was also appointed a Peer Reviewer in Law for the committee that awards Fulbright Specialist scholarships in law.

Steinbuch also participated in a number of interviews recently:
- An interview with the Arkansas Times for the article “Not your father’s kind of justice” focused on litigation and mediation.
- An interview with KUAR focused on HIPAA enforcement.
- An interview with Fox 16 centered on the lawsuit filed against St. Vincent employees for their violation of HIPAA regulations in the Anne Pressly case.

Kelly Terry
Assistant Professor Kelly Terry’s article Externships: A Signature Pedagogy for the Apprenticeship of Professional Identity and Purpose, 59 Journal of Legal Education 240 (2009), was published in November 2009.
