

Ben J. Alzheimer Symposium

February 28, 2014

WILLIAM H. BOWEN
SCHOOL OF LAW

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS AT LITTLE ROCK

Choices and Consequences: Health Policy and the ACA

- 8:30 a.m. Check in – Continental Breakfast
- 9 a.m. Welcome – Dean Michael Hunter Schwartz
- 9:05 a.m. The Case for Health System Change
Keynote speaker - UAMS Chancellor Dan Rahn
- 9:45 a.m. Panel: National Implications of the ACA
Moderator: Elisa White, Vice President and General Counsel, Arkansas Hospital Association
- Panelists:
- Dr. David Nilasena – Briefing on the Affordable Care Act
 - Anne Karl – Medicaid Expansion: State Considerations and Approaches
 - Professor David Orentlicher – Employer-Sponsored Health Care Insurance
 - Michael Barnes – Leveraging the Equity Act and the ACA to Improve Access to Addiction Treatment
 - Professor Rob Leflar – Health Reform: Outcomes Information for Patients and Providers
- 10:15 a.m. Break
- 11:45 a.m. Lunch
- 1:45 p.m. Panel: Arkansas’s Approach to the ACA
Moderator: Elisa White
- Panelists:
- Dr. Nate Smith - Public Health
 - John Selig – The Genesis of the Arkansas Health Care Independence Act
 - Andrew Allison – Private Options Implementation and the Current Status
 - Cindy Crone – Arkansas’s Health Insurance Marketplace
- 3:30 p.m. Close

Acknowledgments

The 2014 Ben J. Altheimer Symposium program was made possible by the efforts of many individuals. Special thanks go to Dean Michael Hunter Schwartz for his support; Professor Lynn Foster for her invaluable guidance and knowledge; Justice Annabelle Tuck and Elisa White for lending a helping hand despite their busy schedules; the UALR Law Review; and to the assistant symposium editors – Furonda Brasfield, Lindsay Bridges, Devon Daughety, and Meghan Joiner.

Sydney L. Brown
Symposium Editor
UALR Law Review

This program has been submitted to the Arkansas Continuing Legal Education Board for a total of 4.0 general CLE hours. Please do not forget to turn in your certificate of attendance and program evaluation before you leave. You must turn in your certificate of attendance in order to receive CLE credit.

Remote attendees: Please email, fax, or mail your certificate of attendance and program evaluation to:

Sydney L. Brown
UALR William H. Bowen School of Law
1201 McMath Avenue
Little Rock, AR 72202
Slbrown4@ualr.edu
(T) 503.505.4713
(F) 501.324.9976

ualr.edu/lawreview