

SETTING UP YOUR NEW AWARD

After the university receives an official notification of your award, ORSP will ensure that all awards and compliance issues have been addressed. We will then set up your account so that you can begin your project.

Generally, ORSP is the only entity at UA Little Rock that can approve and accept awards on behalf of the university. The Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration and the Chancellor can also approve and accept specific awards.