

TECM Intellectual Property Worksheet

Name of faculty member:

Name(s) of other faculty associated with the development of these materials, if any:

Briefly describe the TECM to be developed.

Name/number of Course for which the TECM is being developed.

When will this course be offered and how often will it be offered:

Revision date and revision responsibility:

Who initiated the creation/development of the TECMs:

Describe the university's contribution/support (beyond that support normally provided) and include funding sources:

Describe the contribution of any outside agencies:

List all steps taken (and by whom) to secure any necessary permissions and releases for contributed materials included in this course:

Based on this information, this course fits under Category
Select from this Dropdown List *.

NOTE: If any of the above information or relationships change, either party has the right to renegotiate the category and/or compensation agreement.

*Refer to the template license agreement for the category selected.
Complete and sign the agreement.

Approved by UALR Faculty Senate (4/19/02) and Chancellor Hathaway (5/6/02) TECM Intellectual Property Policy