

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

GUEST SPEAKER SERIES

Spring 2020

Regularly scheduled Psychology Club guest speaker events occur every other Thursday (more or less) from 12:15 -1:00 in Stabler Hall 502 J (Psychology Conference Room). Guest speakers last about 45 minutes.

- Feb 6th - Robert J. Hines, Ph.D.
Psychology Club advisor
UA Little Rock Psychology Department
Topic: Everything you need to know to apply to graduate school in Psychology
- Feb 13th - E. Christopher Lloyd, PhD, LCSW
School of Social Work
University of Arkansas at Little Rock
Topic: Information session on the UA Little Rock Master of Social Work program
- Feb 20th - Melissa J. Zielinski, Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist
Psychiatric Research Institute
UAMS
Topic: Trauma, Mental health, and the legal System
- March 5th - Betty Everett, Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist
Director, UAMS Center for Trauma Prevention, Recovery, and Innovation
Topic: Educational path to becoming a clinical psychologist and developments at the UAMS Center for Trauma Prevention, Recovery, and Innovation.
- March 19th - John Barbuto, Med
Counselor Education
UA Little Rock
Topic: I have a degree in Psychology; now what? What about Rehabilitation Counseling
- April 9th - (Tentative date)E. Christopher Lloyd, PhD, LCSW
School of Social Work
University of Arkansas at Little Rock
Topic: Information session on the UA Little Rock Master of Social Work program
- April 16th - Mr. Carl Propps
Office of Human Resources, recruiter
Department of Human Services
Topic: Career opportunities at the Department of Human Resources