

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

Fall 2020

GUEST SPEAKER SERIES

Psychology Club guest speaker events occur Thursdays 12:15 - 1:00. This semester all meetings will be virtual and held over Google Meet. These events last about 45 minutes. Contact Bob Hines, Ph.D. of the UA Little Rock Department of Psychology if you have any questions.

rjhines@ualr.edu

Thursday, Sept 10th, 12:15 - 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

Bob Hines, Ph.D. Psychology Club advisor

Topic: Everything you ever wanted to know about applying to graduate school in psychology

Thursday, Sept 24th, 12:15 - 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

Seungyeon Lee, PhD, Associate Professor of Psychology, UAM, Associate Editor, The Educational and Developmental Psychologist

Topic: The educational path to becoming a psychologist

Thursday, Oct 15th, 12:15 - 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

Dong Xie, Ph.D. Associate Professor; Licensed Psychologist, Director of Training - Counseling Psychology Program, UCA

Topics: Graduate programs in psychology at the University of Central Arkansas, & Bringing Multiculturalism to Teaching and Learning

Thursday, November 5th, 12:15 – 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

John Barbuto, Med., Counselor Education, UA Little Rock

Topic: I have a degree in Psychology; now what? What about a master's degree in Rehabilitation Counseling (online)

Thursday, November 19th, 12:15 – 1:00 virtual Google Meet event

Wendy Ward, Ph.D., ABPP, Associate Provost for Faculty, Director of Inter-Professional Faculty Development, Academic Affairs/College of Medicine, UAMS

Topic: Career Paths in Health Psychology

All students are welcome to attend.