

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

Spring 2021

GUEST SPEAKER SERIES

Regularly scheduled Psychology Club guest speaker events occur every other Thursday (more or less) from 12:15 -1:00. All guest speaker events during Spring 2021 semester will be held virtually, over Google Meet and they will last about 45 minutes. Contact Bob Hines, Ph.D. of the UA Little Rock Psychology Dept/ if you have any questions. (916-6119, rjhines@ualr.edu).

- February 18th - R. Kevin Rowell, Ph.D.
Assoc. Professor of Psychology/Counseling
Director of Training, Mental Health Counseling Program
Dept. of Psychology & Counseling
University of Central Arkansas
Topic: Trauma Intervention with Middle Eastern Refugees
- March 4th - Margaret Rutherford, Ph.D.
Clinical Psychologist
Adjunct Professor UAMS Psychiatry
Host of The SelfWork Podcast with Dr. Margaret Rutherford
Author of Perfectly Hidden Depression (November 2019, New Harbinger Publications)
Topic: The professional experiences of a clinical psychologist
- March 18th - Charmaine Beasley, LPC
Licensed Professional Counselor
H.E.R. Counseling and Wellness
Topic: Educational process and career of a counselor
- April 1st - Caren Moore, Ph.D.
UA Little Roc Alum
Licensed psychologist
Still Waters Consulting Group
Topic: Practicing psychology in Arkansas, helping at-risk youth
- April 15th - Janice Church, Ph.D.
College of Medicine, Department of Pediatrics, UAMS
Topic: The path to becoming an expert on child abuse victims and offenders.

All students are encouraged to attend.

