

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

Fall 2021

GUEST SPEAKER SERIES

Regularly scheduled Psychology Club guest speaker events occur every other Thursday (more or less) from 12:15 -1:00. During this semester (Fall 2021) all meetings will be virtual and held over Google Meet. These events last about 45 minutes. Contact Bob Hines, Ph.D. of the UA Little Rock Psychology Department if you have any questions. (rjhines@ualr.edu).

Thursday, Sept 9th, 12:15 - 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

Donala K. Jordan, Psy.D., LP, Clinical Psychologist, Jordan Consulting and Psychological Services, PLLC

Topic: Becoming a clinical psychologist, educational path and experiences

Thursday, Sept 23rd, 12:15 - 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

Dawn Doray PsyD. Doray Psychological Services, PLLC

Topic: The educational path to becoming a therapist for children/adolescents and court ordered evaluations for domestic relations court cases (including child custody evaluations)

Thursday, Oct 7th, 12:15 - 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

Kamra Elizabeth Mays, Ph.D. Veterans' Healthcare Systems of the Ozarks, Pain psychologist and home-based primary care psychologist (UALR Alum.),

Topic: Transforming Chronic Pain Treatment: Beyond Passivity

Thursday, Oct 21st (Noon – 1:15 virtual Google Meet event)

Arkansas Psychological Association annual convention

Student research presentations

Thursday, November 4th, 12:15 – 1:00, virtual Google Meet event

Bob Hines, Ph.D. Psychology Club advisor

Topic: Everything you ever wanted to know about applying to graduate school in psychology

Thursday, December 2nd, 12:15 – 1:00 virtual Google Meet event

Psi Chi (international honor society) induction ceremony

All students are welcome to attend.