How to find and use CLASS SEARCH

Why not use the portal in BOSS (the one with the cart)?

- This portal will not allow you to move between multiple classes or see everything until your flag has been raised.

- CLASSSEARCH has no such restriction.

Finding CLASS SEARCH

- The link may be found on the university web page

- Or use this link: https://a.ualr.edu/classes/

How to use CLASS SEARCH?

Search for a class

1. Select a semester
- ◉ 2019 Spring

2. Select a campus
- ◉ Little Rock Campus
- ○ eLearning Online Campus
- ○ Benton Campus
- ○ Clinton School
- ○ Law School

Open to all students except those admitted to programs completed entirely online through the eLearning Online Campus

3. Select a level
(optional)
- ☑ Undergraduate

Law students, visit the William H. Bowen School of Law site for registration information.

Be sure to select the correct campus. If you taking face2face classes, or even if all your classes are fully online, you may not be part of the eLearning Online Campus.

If you have taken online classes before, was the section number all digits (for example: 992 or 972) or was the letter "U" part of your course section number?

If there was a "U": You are part of the eLearning Campus. Otherwise you are part of the Little Rock Campus.

Need help?

You can narrow your search to a specific program and see everything it offers. Or you can enter a specific course number and see all its sections

Be sure to clear this when you decide to search another program!

Additional filters include: days of the week, term, time of day.

You can also filter only Core classes, and those by specific category

This filter will show only courses that are available to the general Little Rock Campus.

See: Psyc & Human Experience, 5th from the top on the list. Its section number is 992, which means it is not restricted to the online campus.

Classes designated 9S in their section number are be held in virtual synchronous format. There is a required attendance during the days and times that class is held.

For those enrolled in the eLearning Campus, the screen will be very similar.

The classes are the same. The difference is in the section number. The middle digit is a "U".

If you are not part of this campus, and try to enroll in these classes you will get an error message: RC, Restricted Campus.
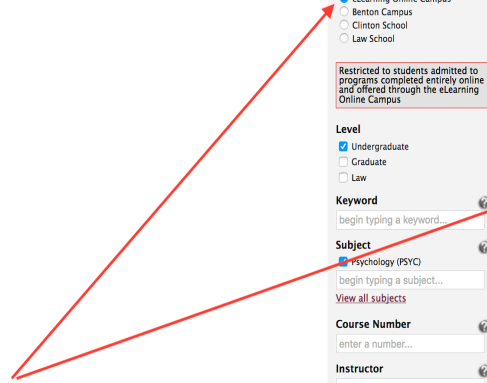

Your search returned 18 classes.
