Request for Conditional Readmission after Academic Suspension

If you are admitted on condition for one semester, the following conditions will apply:

- 1. If your semester GPA is at least 2.0, you will remain on probation until your cumulative GPA reaches at least a 2.0.
2. You will be limited to 13 credit hours per semester while on probation.
3. If you believe that you will not reach a 2.0 GPA for the semester, you may want to consider dropping a class that you are not doing well in or consider withdrawing from all of your classes in the term. Please refer to the academic calendar on the Records and Registration website for exact deadline dates for dropping and individual class and/or withdrawing from all classes.
4. If you have received financial aid or a scholarship, speak with a financial aid counselor before dropping a class or withdrawing from all your classes.
5. If you withdraw from all your classes in the term of conditional readmission, you will have to have your suspension lifted again before you can register in a future term.
6. You will not be able to register for any future term until your grades are posted for the current term of conditional readmission.
