President

WHEREAS the Student Government Association Office, located in the Leadership Lounge suite, is severely outdated and uninviting to the students in the SGA and of the student body.

WHEREAS the Covid-19 pandemic has significantly reduced the number of students, staff members, and faculty members from coming to the SGA offices to conduct business.

WHEREAS the Student Government Association Office needs to be an anchor for campus life and activities.

WHEREAS the Student Government Association needs to prepare the SGA Office to be an updated and inviting space before the Fall 2021 semester is commenced.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED that the Student Government Association at UA Little Rock will allocate $2,000 of the stipend budget to make necessary updates to the SGA Office. This shall include painting each office space and hallway and creating an SGA mural. All updates must be approved by the Dean of Students and Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. All updates must be completed before the commencement of the Fall 2021 semester.
