

Title IX is not just about sports; it is a prohibition against sex-based discrimination in education.

Title IX protects YOU from sex discrimination in:

- Academics
- Activities
- Admissions
- Athletics
- Employment
- Financial Assistance
- Housing
- Recruitment

Title IX protects any person from sex-based discrimination.

Sexual misconduct includes stalking and sexual violence such as rape, sexual assault, battery, and coercion.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as amended, requires educational institutions that receive federal funds or financial assistance to prohibit sex discrimination in ALL programs and activities.

Title IX does not apply to female students only.

UA Little Rock is committed to providing an environment that emphasizes the dignity and worth of every member of its community.

Discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity is prohibited at UALR.

If you or someone you know has been subjected to sexual harassment, discrimination, or misconduct, please visit ualr.edu/titleix to learn more about your rights.
