A grade of “F” or a mark of “U” or “NC” is not acceptable for progression to the next semester, nor is it acceptable for graduation if it occurs in the last semester of the program. A grade of “D” in the following professional courses is not acceptable for progression to the next semester, nor is it acceptable for graduation if it occurs in the last semester of the program: Clinical Practicum II (OPHT 3611), Clinical Practicum III (OPHT 3412), Clinical Practicum IV (OPHT 4510), Clinical Practicum V (OPHT 4511), and Clinical Practicum VI (OPHT 4412). A first semester student who passes all courses but achieves a CGPA of less than 2.0 will be allowed to progress on probation to the second semester if he/she has achieved a CGPA of at least 1.8 in the professional courses. A student in subsequent semesters must maintain a GPA of not less than 2.0 for all courses taken since entering the program. A minimum GPA of 2.0 is required to earn the degree.
